Oliver's
Real Food. Real People.®

BEAUFORT $29.99/LB.

This beautiful French cheese is made in the Savoie region of the French Alps. Weighing in at around 85 pounds, Beaufort is one of the most respected cheeses amongst the cheese elite, and pairs well with a variety of foods, wines, and spirits. The texture is dense and pliable, with flavors reminiscent of toasted cream, hazelnuts, cooked onions and hay.

OLIVER'S MARKET GOURMET CHEESE

JOSEPH PACCARD LA RACLETTE DE SAVOIE $15.99/LB.

Cows grazing on lush Alpine herbs and grasses in the Savoie region of the French Alps provide the raw milk for this legendary melting cheese. Washed with a salt water brine to lend the complex, aromatic pungency that gives Raclette its pleasantly distinct flavor profile. Traditionally served melted and scraped directly from the wheel, there is no heartier meal to warm you this Winter than a dish of lusciously gooey, melty Raclette.

VACHERIN FRIBOURGEOIS $29.99/LB.

Vacherin Fribourgeois is made from milk sourced from the Fribourgeois breed of cows that graze on alpine grass and wildflowers through late spring and summer. Vacherin Fribourgeois has a natural washed rind, a huge aroma and a bold nutty flavor profile, with underlying tones of fresh hay and milk. This semi-firm cheese makes for a beautiful melting cheese melted over vegetables or as an addition to your favorite winter fondue recipe.

WINERY OF THE WEEK

PEDRONCELLI

Pedroncelli is our Winery of the Month for December. What a great opportunity to showcase this Local gem, celebrating their 95th year! Since 1927, when John Pedroncelli, Sr. purchased vineyard and a small winery in Sonoma County's Dry Creek Valley, two elements remain unchanged: the exceptional place the Pedroncelli family farms vineyards, and the family's dedication to making fine wines. Happy 95th!
