WHEN YOU SUPPORT US.

We Support Them!

At Oliver's, "local" means Sonoma County – not Marin, not Napa, and definitely not the state of California. Supporting our local Sonoma County community is a cornerstone of our mission, and for good reason.

Buying locally made products from locally owned businesses creates local jobs, helps improve our local economy, and can lower our environmental footprint. Over 6,000 of the products in our stores are from local, Sonoma County growers and manufacturers, and one of our every four dollars spent at Oliver's is for locally made products.

It's no mystery that Sonoma County has a rich diversity of makers, farmers, and producers, and we at Oliver's are proud to work with them to enrich our local community.
