

HOT HOG-UST NIGHTS

WE'RE PROUD TO PARTNER WITH NIMAN RANCH FOR A SPECIAL COMMUNITY EVENT WE'RE CALLING "HOT HOG-UST NIGHTS"!

This week at Oliver's, for every pound of Niman Ranch pork you purchase, 25¢ will be donated to the Niman Ranch Next Generation Foundation and Sonoma County 4-H programs.

Niman Ranch works with more than 600 independent family farmers and ranchers who are dedicated to sustainable farming and humane animal care.

Their Next Generation Foundation supports young farmers committed to these same values by providing scholarships and grants each year. Some recipients stay on the farm, while others pursue careers in veterinary medicine, education, healthcare, and more—but all share a strong work ethic and a passion for their communities and the future of sustainable agriculture.

Sonoma County 4-H, founded in 1926, helps local youth ages 5–19 reach their full potential. Through hands-on projects in leadership, STEM, healthy living, and civic engagement, young people learn to set goals, overcome challenges, and discover their passions - all while developing the confidence and skills to become active contributors to their communities.

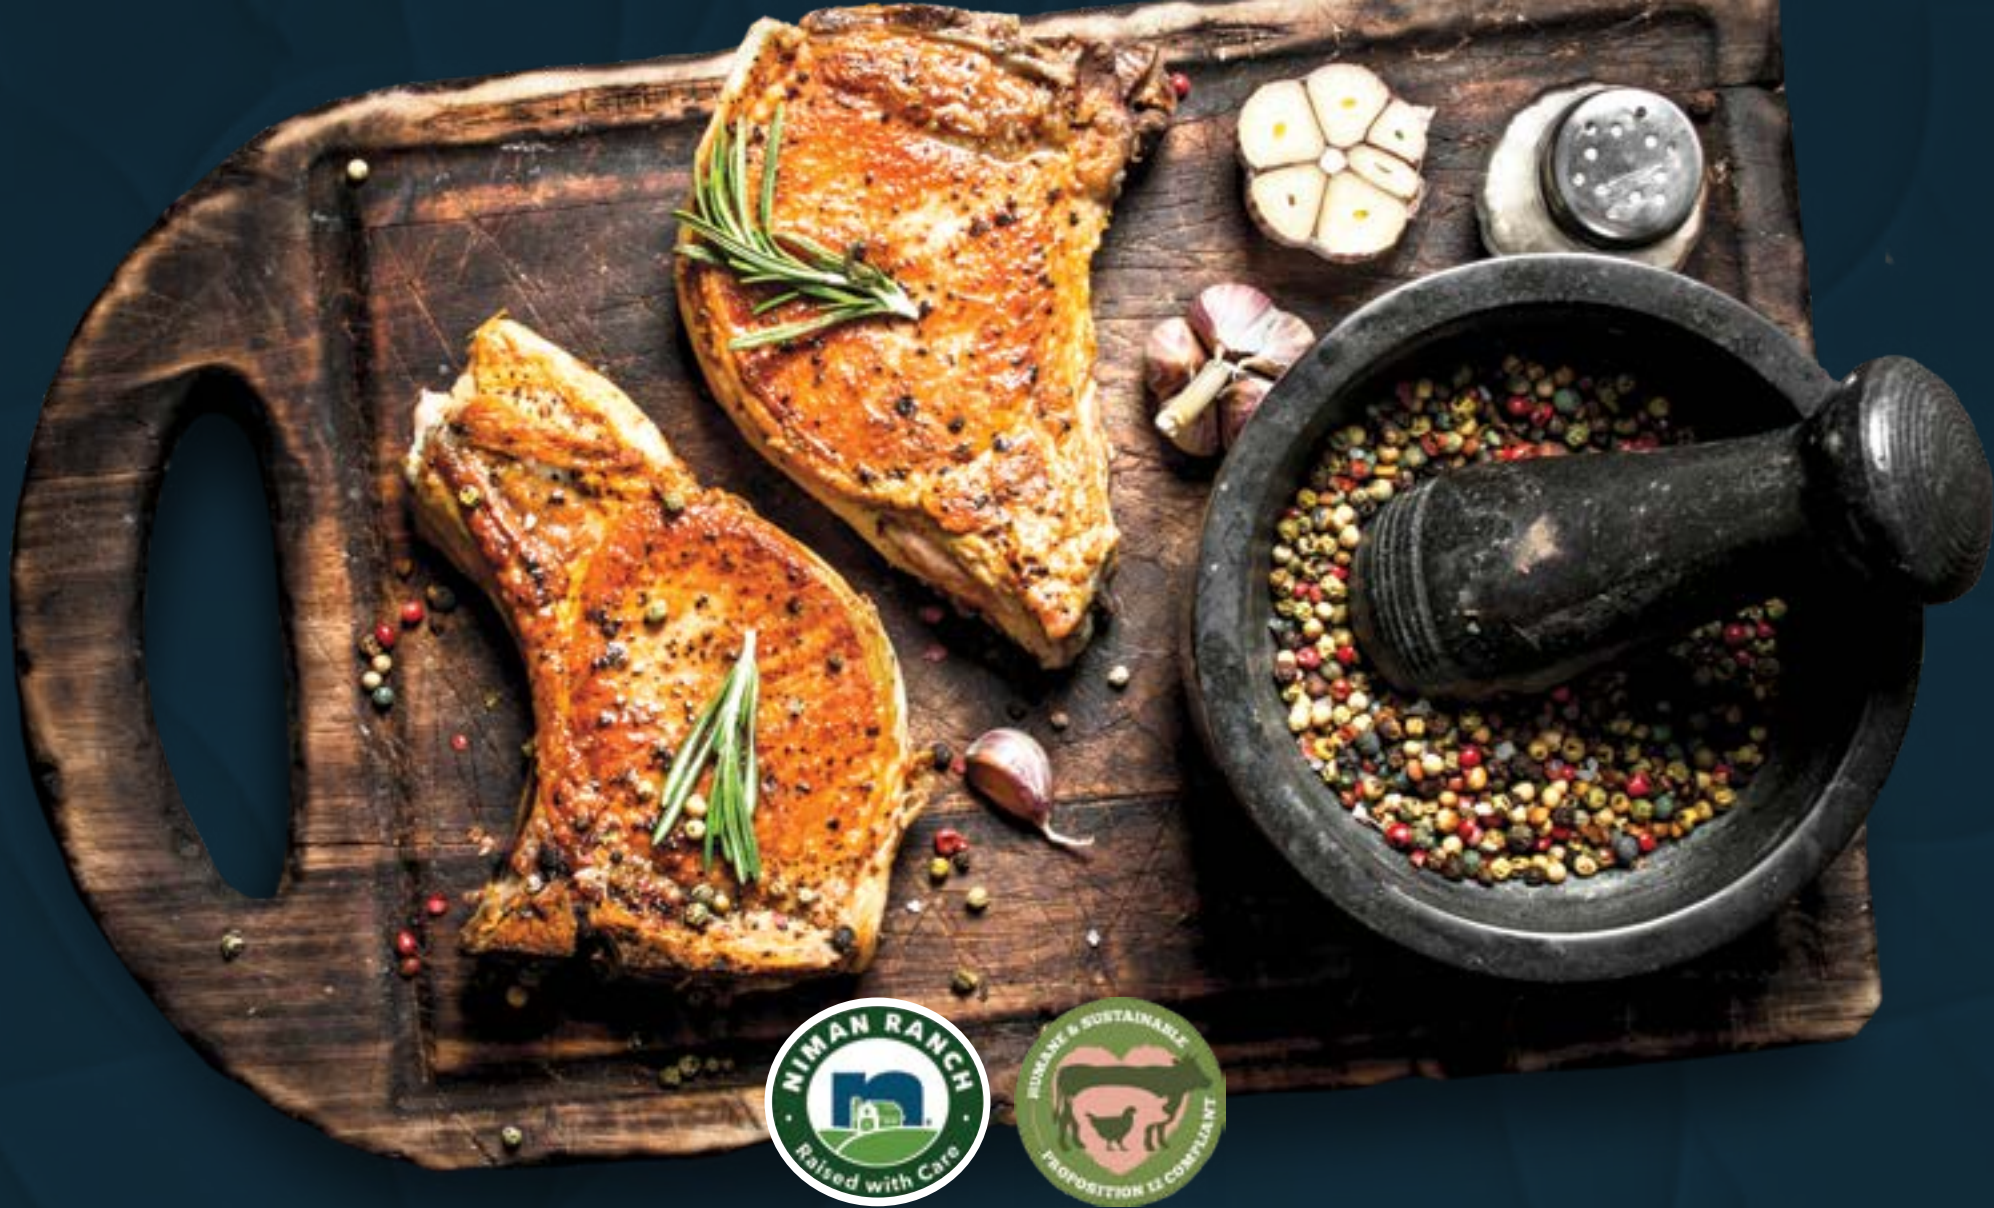

Join us in celebrating "Hot Hog-ust Nights" and help us support the next generation of farmers, leaders, and changemakers. When you support us, we support them.

“Hi, I’m Hayley Daniels, Meat and Seafood Coordinator for Oliver’s Market. This week’s ad truly hits home for me: Raised on a local farm, I showed animals for 13 years, starting small with chickens and ending big with market pigs, steer, and horses. As a kid in 4-H, I learned leadership, responsibility, and being charismatic when needed! Learning how to take care of animals 24/7, making sure they will ‘make weight’ for the fair, you put your all into winning that blue ribbon. This week’s ad will help support these invaluable experiences for kids and young farmers.”
