OLIVER'S MARKET CRAFT BREWERY OF THE WEEK

“Celebrate Cinco de Mayo with a lineup of lagers that prioritize crisp, malt-forward profiles over heavy hops. A top choice is the Old Caz Chismosa Amber, a World Beer Cup Gold Medalist prized for its toasted bread and light caramel notes, or try the Clara with Lime for a zesty, bright citrus snap. The recently crowned Best in Show winner at Battle of the Brews, Parliament’s Los Tecolotes, leans into a clean, cereal grain sweetness with a dry finish reminiscent of fresh corn tortillas. Cooperage’s El Coopacabra offers a light-bodied experience that emphasizes smooth malt flavors with very low bitterness for maximum refreshment, while Fogbelt’s El Viejo brings a traditional touch with a crackery malt base and a subtle floral hop aroma. Round out your day with Sonoma Springs’ El Valiente, a Vienna-style lager brewed with flaked maize to create a smooth, honeyed flavor profile.”
