Oliver's is pleased to announce Kendall-Jackson as the Winery of the Month for May

Founded in 1982, Kendall-Jackson Winery has built its legacy on a simple philosophy: great wine is grown, not made. Rooted in the fertile soils of California Wine Country, the winery has spent more than four decades refining its craft, earning a reputation for excellence while continuously raising the bar. Its flagship Vintner's Reserve Chardonnay helped define American Chardonnay, even earning the first-ever platinum award for the category at the American Wine Competition in 1983 and now earning the distinction of being America's top selling Chardonnay 30 years in a row!

Beyond its award-winning wines, Kendall-Jackson is known for creating immersive wine experiences and leading with innovation. The opening of its Wine Estate and Gardens in Sonoma County in 1996 established a destination that blends vineyards, culinary gardens, and education into a true farm-to-table experience. A pioneer in sustainability, the winery received the California Green Medal Leader Award in 2016 and co-founded International Wineries for Climate Action in 2019, reinforcing its commitment to environmental stewardship.

Today, Kendall-Jackson continues to evolve while staying grounded in quality and sustainability. From expanding into sparkling wines to maintaining its dedication to responsible winegrowing, the winery remains focused on the future. Guests are invited to experience firsthand the passion, craftsmanship, and vision that have made Kendall-Jackson a cornerstone of California winemaking.
