PINOT NOIR

June 2026

We're celebrating the complex flavors of Pinot Noir. The folks on our wine team have each selected their favorite to feature from a range of styles - try them each at special pricing all month long. Make sure to flip this over to discover more about Pinot Noir including pairing notes and more!

HEAD HIGH Pinot Noir

2022, Sonoma County

"The first Ocean Positive winery" with every decision made with the purpose and commitment to earth. 100% Sonoma County fruit. Flavors of ripe cherries."

Matteo Polverari
Montecito Wine Manager

OLIVER'S OWN Pinot Noir

2024, Russian River Valley

"Quality Russian River Valley Pinot Noir for under $20? Yes it's true, and quite tasty! Bright red fruits, elegant mouthfeel and very present acid. For Pinot lovers scouring the county for affordable, high-quality Pinot, look for no further!!"

Josh Kirchoff
Corporate Wine & Liquor
Coordinator

CHAMISAL Pinot Noir

2023, San Luis Obispo

"Fresh and bursting with bright cherry, wild strawberry, cranberry, and rhubarb. A subtle herbal undertone blends into a savory finish of baking spices. Perfect with grilled salmon, roast pork loin, or wild mushroom risotto!"

Justin Bowman
Cotati Wine Manager

RODNEY STRONG Pinot Noir

2024, Russian River Valley

"This delicious Pinot Noir delivers vibrant cherry and raspberry notes, silky tannins, and a smooth finish. A beautifully balanced wine—elegant, expressive, and perfect for any occasion."

David Riley
Stony Point Wine Manager

SIDURI Pinot Noir

2020, Anderson Valley

"A winery named after the Babylonian goddess of wine! Siduri produces wines from vineyards all along the west coast but this particular bottle hails from the Anderson Valley. This bottle is juicy and rich, with notes of tobacco and cherry."

Brandon Witwicki
Windsor Wine Manager

THE YEAR

Pinot Noir can be aged for up to eight years.

ALCOHOL CONTENT

Moderate alcohol content, ranging from 13.5% to 15%. The precise level can vary depending on the region and the winemaking style.

AROMAS

Fresh floral, fruity, earthy and spice aromas are common in Pinot Noir.

THE CAP

Screw caps often are preferred because they offer a tighter seal, which helps preserve the wine's fresh, vibrant character.

THE COLOR

Known for its intense rich red color, Pinot Noir can be compared to that of garnet and is often much lighter color than other red wines.

FLAVORS

Red fruit like cherry, raspberry and plum. Pinot Noir can also have earthy and spice elements like truffle, forest floor and baking spice.
