GRUYÈRE LOVE
AT FIRST
MELT

“Gruyere holds a special place in my heart. Its flavors cover a wide spectrum of possibilities, depending on the season, age, and where it’s made. It’s a hearty melting cheese that I love to eat year-round; it warms the soul. The aromas are intoxicating, and it’s no surprise that it’s one of Switzerland’s most recognized cheeses. Cook with it, put it in on a board with charcuterie and alongside a nice glass of wine.”

Gruyere is a name protected cheese recognized by the AOP, under this protection Gruyere can only be made under strict regulations in specific regions of Switzerland, acting as a safeguard to preserve a level of quality control and authenticity. Gruyere is well-respected in the culinary world thanks to its distinctive flavor profile and flawless melting qualities. It is one of the fundamental cheeses for a traditional Swiss Fondue, and the go-to for French Onion Soup. We invite you to try this cheese this week.”

MIFROMA CAVE AGED

GRUYÈRE

One of the most iconic melting cheeses of Switzerland, Gruyere itself is a cause for celebration. Famous for its flawless melting qualities and distinctive flavor profile, Cave Aged Gruyere makes a regular appearance as a staple in the culinary world. Outside of the kitchen it continues to impress as a phenomenal cheese to feature on a charcuterie board with a nice glass of wine and good company.
