SAVE 25% ON ALL LOCAL PRODUCE

"Oliver's Market is proud to partner with F.E.E.D.

Cooperative, the first farmer owned Co-op, to bring the very best locally grown produce to our customers. Over the last 10 years we have grown our relationship to the point that we now purchase over $1 million in local produce each year.

F.E.E.D. Cooperative provides an efficient, streamlined connection between local farms and our stores, making it easier to source fresh, seasonal produce directly from the people who grow it. This partnership reduces transportation time, keeps products fresher, and strengthens our regional food system. This is truly the highest quality produce we can purchase. Nothing is going to be fresher than ordering the day before and seeing on our shelves the next day.

This partnership is a 'win' for us in many other ways, too. Supporting local agriculture has always been at the heart of our company mission and history. Every local purchase helps sustain family farms, strengthens our community, and gives our customers the opportunity to enjoy the freshest produce our region has to offer. We're proud to invest in local growers and celebrate the incredible bounty of Sonoma County, which our work with F.E.E.D Cooperative makes possible."
